AUDITIONS & UPCOMING PRODUCTIONS

OKLAHOMA!

June 2008

Join the cowboys at the box social as the Country Players present Rodgers & Hammerstein's "Oklahoma!" at the Shea Theater in Turners Falls on Friday and Saturday evenings, July 11, 12, 18, and 19th at 8 p.m. and Sunday, July 20th at 2 p.m. Directed by Bob DuCharme, the cast includes farm-girl Laurey (Cayla Plasse), cowboy Curley (Tom Knightlee), dark farmhand Jud Frye (Dave Peck), the girl who can't say no, Ado Annie (Jeri Higgins), the huckster Ali Hackim (Bob Delaney) and cowboy Will Parker (Peter Heed). The young people are guided by the sterling voices of steadfast Aunt Eller (Sue MacDonald) and Andy Carnes (Jack Arnot.) Amy Roberts- leads the cast in harmonies of "Oh What a Beautiful Morning" and all of the old favorites, as well as directing the orchestra. Choreography is by Melanie Reneris. Come see cast members in costume as they perform at the Tines & Tunes Celebration for the Shea on July 12th at Peskeumkut Park in Turners Falls at 3:00PM, or see them at the Greenfield Fireworks on July 5th.

DRACULA

DRACULA will take the Shea Theatre stage next Halloween. Director Dave Grout's goal is to provide all audience members with a frighteningly entertaining experience upon seeing this performance and asks that anyone interested in taking on this challenge should look for auditions in August!

CONGRATULATIONS!

DRACULA!
Coming next Fall to the Shea

The Country Players congratulates the many seniors who recently graduated from High School and have exhibited a dedication to not only our theatrical organization, but also to the performing arts in general. We are VERY proud of you and thank you for all the hard work you have exhibited both on- stage and behind the scenes. Also, we are thrilled to congratulate the president of The Country Players Board of Directors, Erin Richman, who took first place at the Shea Theatre's third annual Valley Idol Competition!! Go Erin!

AUDITIONS! Do you like to sing? If you do, please come and audition for the TCP "AAH Capellas!" on June 24th from 6:00pm-7:00pm at the GCC Main Campus Dance Studio (East Building) . This A Capella Chorus performs at special events throughout the Christmas season!
