ONE FLEW OVER THE CUCKOO'S NEST

24 March 2008

Come join the madness at the Shea Theater in Turners Falls as the Country Players present "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" on Friday and Saturday evenings, April 11, 12, 18, and 19th at 8:00PM. Directed by Richard J. Martin and written by Dale Wasserman, the dramatic adaptation of the Ken Kesey novel reveals a world turned upside down as the inmates take over the asylum and question the truths they have known, as they chose to move toward sanity, or not. Are they truly disturbed, catatonic, delusional, dangerous? Congratulations to Board members Beth Ferriera, Emily Eaton, Bob Delaney and Rick Mauran who take on acting roles in the show and Dick Martin for Directing!

Please let T.C.P. know if you are involved in any theatrical performances. We take pride in the many talented people that have worked with us and we want to support you! We were happy to see pictures of Brian Campbell, Cory Flood, and Joe Bergeron in the Arts and Entertainment section of the Recorder for recent productions as well as Dave Grout in the Montague Reporter for giving acting lessons to Girls Scouts at the Shea Theatre. Also, keep in touch by going to our website at www.countryplayers.org. There you can view photos from the rehearsals of ONE FLEW OVER THE CUCKOO'S NEST as well as photos from over 25 years of productions. Pictures from THE WIZARD OF OZ : 2007 have just been posted! The website also contains information about our organization and our Board of Directors.

The Country Players is a non-profit community theater organization whose goal is to utilize and encourage community talent through its dedication to the educational and cultural development of individuals through exposure to the mediums of drama, music, and dance.
